The Power and Majesty of Prayer

By Peter J. Murk

Hey there, just remember to say a little prayer
When you need Our Lord's special care
He is omnipresent and always there
And ready to listen and to be . . . wherever you are.

He receives your many petitions
Calms your worries, fears, and your admonitions
Just acknowledge your anxieties and confess all your sins
Beg Our Dear Lord for His forgiveness with your sincerest contrition.

Thank Him with your mighty praises
Open up the windows of your souls, and tell your secret wishes
Share your troubles as circumstances happen
Seek His kindness and His glorious blessings.

O Dear Lord, heal my sins and my many infirmities
Help me to be strong when faced with perplexing difficulties!
Today, right now, I commit myself to Your Love
I send my prayers and petitions to You in Heaven, above.

Thank you, O Lord for hearing my prayers.
Grant my important wishes, with your special care
Assist others, too, who need your special redemptive love
We make these prayers for them on the Wings of the Dove. Amen.

A short 20 line poem with five stanzas describing the four major aspects of Prayer from your brother Knight.
